HOW UWHC WORKS

Each local program we fund serves vital and basic needs. That's how we live out our mission of measurably improving the lives of vulnerable children, families and individuals in Hancock County.

1| Know our Community

- Asses local needs, services, and the gaps between
- Prioritize needs
- Rally and engage community partners and stakeholders

2| Gather Resources & Raise Funds

- Annual fundraising campaign – the money raised here stays here
- Seek outside grants to stretch local dollars

3| Support Needed Programs

- Strategically deploy funding in areas of greatest need
- Assist community members in accessing resources

4| Work Together

- Promote community partners
- Ensure sustainable solutions are in place to meet critical needs
- Connect volunteers to advance our work

Make a Difference!

- Improve lives by uplifting & empowering the vulnerable
- Track program impact to ensure desired results
- Affect lasting change
